

Privacy Policy

Welcome to Pixelsense("Pixelsense", "we", "us", "our" or "The App"). Our Privacy Policy explains how we and some of the companies we work with collect, use, share and protect information in relation to our mobile services, and any other services we provide:

Information We collect

We do Not collect personally identifiable information from users and do Not intend to do so.

Use of 3rd Party Analytics

We do Not use any 3rd Party analytical tools.

Image Data and Face Data

When you first use Pixelsense, we ask you for access to your photo library so we can read your photos and modify them. Photo data is extremely sensitive, and we believe it's important for you to know and understand what we do with that data.

At Pixelsense, we firmly believe that your data belongs to you. As such, Pixelsense does Not collect, store, or share any images, or data that can be used to identify or contact a specific individual. We do not have advertisers, nor do we require an account to use Pixelsense.

Photos that you edit with Pixelsense are only processed on your device, Pixelsense does Not use Web Service or Cloud Service to process your photos, so we Never upload your photos.

Pixelsense can also detect the faces of people in your photos. This process is conducted on your device. We do Not collect or retain any biometric data from your photos.

Website Privacy Policy

This website and products are owned and operated by Youthpe. ("Youthpe"). Your use and access to this site is subject to the following terms and conditions and all applicable laws. By viewing or using this site, you agree to be bound by these terms, conditions, and laws. If you do not agree with any provision in this Privacy Policy and these Terms of Service, please do not use this site:

Like most website operators and digital products, Youthpe collects non-personally identifying information of the sort that web browsers and servers typically make available, such as the browser type, language preference, referring site, and the date and time of each visitor request. Our purpose in collecting non-personally identifying information is to better understand how Youthpe's visitors use its website and digital products. From time to time, we may release non-personally identifying information in the aggregate, e.g., by publishing a report on trends in the usage of its website and digital products. Youthpe may collect statistics about the behavior of visitors to its website. However, we do Not collect or disclose personally-identifying information.

Unsolicited Ideas

Youthpe can not protect your unsolicited ideas, suggestions, or materials related to our products, and we reserve the right to share non-personal information received via this site with the public. We do Not seek unsolicited ideas, suggestions, or materials related to our products other than in user reviews and feedback to improve the customer experience. If you do not want us to use your ideas to improve our products, please do not submit them to us.

Change to Our Privacy Policy

We may modify or update this Privacy Policy from time to time, so please review it periodically. We may provide you additional forms of notice of modifications or updates as appropriate under the circumstances. Your continued use of Pixelsense or the Service after any modification to this Privacy Policy will constitute your acceptance of such modification.
